

You create a usage profile, called Phone Plan Profile with one tier. A unit is considered a minute and billing is set to monthly.

You create a product called Phone Plan Product and attach the Phone Plan Profile to the product.

A customer signs up with your service and purchases the Phone Plan Product

A usage account is created for the customer as a result of a usage product purchase.

A usage item is created for the customer specific to a product, in this case the Phone Plan Product

Monthly Billing Period

Usage Item Entries

